Dear Stefan,

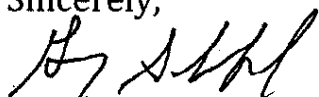

It is my immense pleasure to recommend Stefan Walker as a real estate broker for any individual or family searching for the ideal home.

From our initial meeting with Stefan, he was a consummate professional with an attention to detail. Stefan is an expert in his field. He listens intently, provides knowledgeable advice and above all, delivers exactly to his client's needs - often going above and beyond. Anyone will tell you how extremely competitive the market is to find a home in the Silicon Valley. You need a broker who leaves not one stone unturned, and finds the rare and unique homes that do exist, but few know about. Stefan will find it and put you in the best position to own it.

That is exactly what he did for us...all in record time. We had been looking for a home with a long list of specifics. Stefan not only found us the perfect home off-market, which was extremely rare, but he navigated through an incredibly challenging deal that most brokers would not have been able to achieve.

Stefan has proven to us that he is the only broker to partner with and we would not hesitate to work with him again in the future.

Sincerely,

Gary Schofield
